

Announcements, March 8, 2009

Young Adults March 8, 6 – 8 p.m.
3601 Connecticut Ave., NW, #804

Join us tonight next for our monthly Second Sunday Dinner at the home of Rev. Ann Davie, a half block north of the Cleveland Park Metro. If you are a young adult and have not already been hooked into our e-mail list, or would like to learn more about our activities, please contact Sarah Barclay at 703-892-1928 or sarahelliott915@gmail.

Talking About March 8, 8:45 a.m.,
Miriam's Kitchen March 15, 11 a.m. and 12:15 p.m.
Park Level

For three weeks there will be "listening sessions" with the NYAPC Miriam's Kitchen Task Force, as together we research and communicate options about Miriam's Kitchen proposal to renovate the Park Level in order to serve evening meals to the homeless. All members and friends are invited to express their views and learn more about this opportunity to expand our ministry to the needy. Scheduled at various times on Sunday mornings to enable everyone to participate, all meetings will be held on the Park Level. On March 22 (only) Miriam's Kitchen directors will be visiting to get better acquainted with NYAPC and to answer questions about their program and vision.

WIN House Meetings on March 8, 15, 10 a.m., 12 p.m.
the Economic Crisis Room 127

Fritz von Fleckenstein and Bob Wilden will be leading WIN House Meetings after both services to hear about people's experiences with the current recession. If you did not attend the House Meeting on February 15, please come to one of these meetings and tell us how the crisis is affecting you or your friends and acquaintances. We want to hear both stories and suggestions.

War, Peace and Justice Forum March 13, 12 p.m.
Radcliffe Room

Immigration Detention in the United States: A Growing Humanitarian Crisis. Kathryn M. Doan, Esq., executive director of the Capital Area Immigrants' Rights Coalition, will speak on the growing humanitarian crisis caused by our current immigration policies. Over 300,000 immigrants were detained in 2008 including asylum seekers and long-term residents of the United States. Ms. Doan will discuss the devastating impact of detention on immigrant communities and offer alternatives to our current policies.

New Members Classes March 15, 22, and 29,
12 p.m., Room 511

Interested in Joining the New York Avenue Church Community? If you could be interested in joining the New York Avenue congregation, or are curious about what joining this congregation might be like, we encourage you to come to the next 3-week series of New Member Classes. Please call Paul Dornan at 703-971-9047 if you have any questions. You will be warmly welcomed!

Eco Discipleship March 21, 9 -11 a.m.
Task Force Lincoln Parlor

This group is working with the intersection of theological, biblical and environmental matters, as well as recommending changes in life style and building uses ...to reflect better care of God's good earth. New folks are very welcome! For additional information contact: Peter Boeve, 571-309-3913.

Email Preferences Survey

Please tell us your email preferences. We hope to save hundreds of dollars by converting much of our print mail to email. Please tell us how you want to receive communications from NYAPC by filling out the Email Preferences Survey available at the front desk and near the doors in the Peter Marshall Hall. Return to Meg House or deposit in the box at the front desk labeled "Email Preferences." Thank you!

Lincoln Bicentennial Ornaments

The Sunday Memorial Flower schedule has several vacancies, in particular for February and March, 2009. To be a donor for a specific Sunday, please contact Mary Anne Davis at 703-256-3588.
