NYAPC Organ Recital with Dr. Douglas Major	Sunday, January 31 2 p.m., Sanctuary
Douglas Major, acclaimed composer, concert artist and internationally recognized organ solo artist, has toured throughout North America, Europe and the Far East. His two most recent recordings include organ music by Bach and a second of music by Widor and Franck, demonstrating the incredible versatility of the Washington Cathedral Great Organ. His compositions include many sacred works, masses, anthems, psalm settings and organ music.
Cuba Working Group & Trip Report!!	Sunday, January 31, 8 a.m., J. Q. Adams Room
All are invited to the next Cuba Working Group meeting, to see a slide show and photos and hear about the recent trip to La Habana to visit partner church, First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana. Susan Tilt, professional photographer and artist who was part of the mission trip, will give the presentation. Others from our group will also be available to share photos and stories of our week's visit with First Havana friends and distribution of new t-shirts to the church-sponsored neighborhood baseball teams. All are welcome! Breakfast is provided! Questions? Contact Marilyn Seiber, 703-893-1559, mjs1wan2@bellatlantic.net .
Food Bank Donations
Members and friends of The New York Avenue Presbyterian Church are reminded that the fourth Sunday of each month (today, January 24, February 28, March 28, April 25, etc.) is the day to bring your contributions of canned goods and perishable foods to worship. Items should be placed in the basket at the front of the Sanctuary.
"The Board of Diaconal Ministers"
After several years of consideration, a month of contemplation and in consultation with and approval of Rev. Gench, on January 9, 2010, the Board of Deaconesses voted to change their name to The Board of Diaconal Ministers, effective February 1, 2010. (Diaconal is pronounced "dī-a-ku-nul.") This action was taken to reflect the board's current inclusive membership of men and women and to more effectively describe its mission of ministering to those congregants and friends in need. The strong tradition of the Board's concern for its mission and the fulfillment of its many duties will continue unchanged, and the Board asks for the congregation's continued prayers and support. The congregation will be asked to vote to amend the church bylaws accordingly.
Cuban Music -- Villazul CDs Are Back
The Villazul professional music group members are also members of our partner church, First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana. They have had an integral role in NYA's "music missions" to Cuba, and NYA supported their first Christian-music CD two years ago. They now have a new CD; you may purchase it for $15 from Music Director Stan Engebretson or Marilyn Seiber -- only 8 left!!
AveNews
The deadline for the next issue of AveNews is February 7. Meg Neill is the editor for this issue, which will be published in late February. Please send submissions to meg.rob.neill@comcast.net .
Welcome to NYAPC!
Please take a moment to introduce yourself to Mr. Sherry Brown and to Ms. Cheria McMillan, our new part-time entry receptionist employees. Mr. Brown ("Sherry") will work Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings and every other Saturday; Ms. McMillan ("Cheria") will work Sundays after 1 pm and Thursday afternoons and evenings.
REMINDER: January 31– 2 p.m. – Organ Recital February 7 - 2 p.m. – Rededication Worship
