Foundation

Prayer of Confession (Ted Loder, Guerrillas of Grace, 1981)

Lord, plunge me deep into a sense of sadness at the pain of my sisters and brothers inflicted by war, prejudice, injustice, indifference, that I may learn again to cry as a child until my tears baptize me into a person who touches with care those I now touch in prayer: victims of violence, of greed, of addictions; prisoners in ghettos, in old age, in sexism; people with broken bodies, with broken hearts, with broken lives, whom I remember now in silence before you because I have often forgotten them in the shuffle of my fretful busyness. Amen.

Building Tours: To take a tour of our building and learn about this congregation’s heritage, current ministry, and outreach, meet the tour guide at the front of the Sanctuary immediately following the service.

When bulletins are waved during worship at NYAPC, it is a sign of appreciation for the music or other contribution to the service. It is an action which we learned from our partner church, the First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana, as an alternative to clapping. For the wavers, it is an expression of joy in the moment and our connections with sisters and brothers in faith.
