“Texts of Terror” As we journey through Lent to a cross, we will do so in the company of four women in ancient Israel who, like Jesus, were not strangers to sorrow: Hagar, Tamar, an unnamed concubine and Jephthah's daughter. Using Phyllis Trible’s extraordinary book, entitled Texts of Terror: Literary-Feminist Readings of Biblical Narratives as our guide, we will explore these neglected, tragic stories in memoriam and consider their connections with our lives and ministries. TODAY -- Tamar: The Royal Rape of Wisdom (2 Samuel 13), Rev. Frances Taylor Gench

Lenten Study Class	Tuesdays in Lent 10:30 a.m., Docherty Center
You are cordially invited to join this search for new understanding of the Lenten season. We will discuss the significance for our lives of Jesus' journey toward the Cross and resurrection. Rev. Linda LeSourd Lader will help us consider aspects of the spiritual pilgrimage using "Walking the Way of the Cross," a study series.

* Call to Worship

One: O give thanks to our God who is good, whose saving love endures forever.

All: Let those who are redeemed by God declare it, rescued from trouble and gathered from many lands;

One: From the east and from the west, from the north and from the south, give thanks to God who is always good.

All: Let us worship.

*Opening Hymn

422 (verses 1-2),
God, Whose Giving Knows No Ending”
Beach Spring

Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, by Your word You create and by Your breath You give life. We worship You with joy and thanksgiving, praising You for the fullness that Your presence brings to our lives. We praise You that by Your word You feed us; we are satisfied, and there is always more. Your goodness is displayed in Your wonderful works for all humanity, and in Your perfect love. In our humanity we are rebellious, and sometimes follow after foolish ideas. But when we cry out You are there, Your word healing our emptiness and pain, embracing us and leading us in Your ways. We praise You for Your unending faithfulness, revealed to us in Christ Jesus, and made present to us in Your Holy Spirit.

Please stand, if able*

Sending Hymn “It’s Amazing
Tony Congi © 1990 Aslan

1 I have searched the whole world over
Looking for the things,
That I thought would fill my heart And ease my pain
I can climb the highest mountain,
Or sail beyond the seas
And it always brings me back to You again.

Chorus It’s amazing how You love me
It’s amazing how You care
It’s amazing how You’re always thinking of me
All the time, everywhere.
2 There are times when I feel lonely
I’m twisted up inside
On who I am and what I want to be
There’s a yearning deep inside of me
And a longing to be free, and
It always brings me back to You again. Chorus
Bridge Well, I have lived my life an outlaw on the run
Leavin’ broken hearted dreams for everyone
No matter what I do, No matter what I’ve done
It always brings me back to You again
3 I can look the whole world over
Thinkin’ that I’ll find
Another one who’ll know me like You do
No matter where I go, No matter where I’ve been
It always brings me back to You again. Chorus

Information for Sunday Visitors

We extend a warm welcome to visitors!

We invite you to sign the guest book at the rear of the Sanctuary.

Garage Parking: Free self-parking is available on Sundays in the garage next to the church at 1399 New York Avenue until 1 p.m. Please park in any non-reserved space.

Radcliffe Room Ministry: Everyone is invited and encouraged to come to the Radcliffe Room on Sunday mornings. This is a vibrant NYAPC ministry and we would love to have you join us: meet our friends for coffee, conversation, bagels and hymn singing.

Restrooms: Facilities are available on the second floor (in the hallway behind the sanctuary), on the fifth floor and on the first floor.

Infants and children: Babies and toddlers under 4 are welcome in the Park Level nursery. Care is provided by licensed, paid professionals. During the services, children’s worship aids are available in the rear of the Sanctuary.

Building Tours: To take a tour of our building and learn about this congregation’s heritage and current ministry and outreach, meet the tour guide at the front of the Sanctuary immediately following the service.

Large Print Bibles and Large Print Bulletins: Available at the front of the Sanctuary.

When bulletins are waved during worship at NYAPC, it is a sign of appreciation for the music or other contribution to the service. It is an action which we learned from our partner church, the First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana, as an alternative to clapping. For the wavers, it is an expression of joy in the moment and our connections with sisters and brothers in faith.

Non-perishable food donations are being requested to share with the Capital Area Food Bank, the large nonprofit hunger and nutrition education resource in the Washington metropolitan area. Your donations are welcome in the baskets located at the rear of the Sanctuary.
