"Traveling through Ephesians" Despite being imprisoned in Rome, Paul remained encouraged. He wrote to his believers, encouraging them to grow and mature in their faith, to be unified, to use their God-given gifts and ministries for the church, to conduct their relationships according to God's divine order, and to live an empowered Christian life. Join us for a nine-week study, as we explore themes in the prison epistle, Ephesians, and discover, or re-discover, ways to apply Paul's themes to our lives and our walk with Christ today. Tarra Taylor of Howard Divinity School will lead.
Adult Sunday School	Sundays, February 9, 16, 23 10 a.m., Room 511
"The Theology of the Cross" The cross is the central symbol of our faith, but where does it fit into the theology of the church today? Pastor Roger Gench will lead a four-week series on that question, using Theodore Jennings' book, Transforming Atonement: A Political Theology of the Cross , as the foundation for his discussion. Come and learn. You do not have to buy the book to participate.

"An inclusive and justice seeking church"

Celebration of Worship

The New York Avenue Presbyterian Church welcomes all people into community, worship, service and leadership.

February 9, 2014
8:45 and 11:00 a.m.
5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The worship service begins with a brief period for personal meditation and the Prelude.

*Holy God, You gave the law to show Your people the way of righteousness.
Help us receive Your commandments as grace and live as Your obedient children that Your goodness may shine through us, to the glory of Your name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.*

I. The Community Gathers for Worship

Prelude "Rhosymedre"
Ralph Vaughan Williams
Introit "As Morning Dawns"
Wareham, Psalm 5

Lincoln Chimes

 Call to Worship based on the gospel children's song and today's texts from Isaiah and Matthew

One: Jesus proclaims, "You are the light of the world."

All: Our light shall break forth like the dawn.

One: Your light shall rise in the darkness.

All: This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine.

One: Hide your light under a bushel?

All: No! I'm gonna let it shine.

One: Let your light shine before others, so that they may give glory to God.

All: Let it shine, Let it shine, Let it shine.

Hymn # 662 (verses 1-2),
"Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies"
Ratisbon

Prayer of Confession

Almighty God, we have asked for Your righteous judgment against others, but we have not acknowledged the sin in our own lives. We have worshiped You with our lips, but have dishonored You with our actions. We have prayed for You to end the suffering in our world, yet we have not practiced compassion and generosity toward others. Our religion has become the source of quarreling rather than a testimony to Your grace.
Forgive our self-righteousness and give us integrity of heart, that we may shine forth the light of Your salvation.

 Please stand, if able*

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Response

662 (verse 3), "Christ, Whose Glory Fills the Skies"
Ratisbon
Visit then this soul of mine;
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
Fill me, radiancy divine;
Scatter all my unbelief;
More and more thyself display,
Shining to the perfect day

Building Tours: To take a tour of our building and learn about this congregation's heritage, current ministry, and outreach, meet the tour guide at the front of the Sanctuary immediately following the service.

When bulletins are waved during worship at NYAPC, it is a sign of appreciation for the music or other contribution to the service. It is an action which we learned from our partner church, the First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana, as an alternative to clapping. For the wavers, it is an expression of joy in the moment and our connections with sisters and brothers in faith.
