“An inclusive and justice seeking church”

Celebration of Worship

The New York Avenue Presbyterian Church
welcomes all people into community, worship, service and leadership.

June 23, 2013
10:00 a.m.
12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The worship service begins with a brief period for personal meditation and the Prelude.

Silent Reflection

*Jesus said: “Love the Lord your God with all your passion and prayer and intelligence.”
This is the most important, the first on any list. But there is a second to set alongside it:
“Love others as well as you love yourself.” These two commands are pegs;
everything in God's Law and the Prophets hangs from them.”
-Mt 22:37-40, Third Millennium Bible*

I. The Community Gathers for Worship

Prelude “Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise”
St. Denio, arr. Shackley

Introit “O Word of God Incarnate”
Munich, adapted Felix Mendelssohn

*Call to Worship

Leader: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

All: We come to worship the One who calls us to love.

Leader: Let us love with our whole being.

All: Let us love with our heart, our soul, our mind, and our strength.

Leader: We come to worship the One who calls us to love our neighbors.

All: Come, let us worship God!

*Opening Hymn

#481, “Praise the Lord, God's Glories Show”
Llanfair

Prayer of Confession

One: God, You call us to love You with all our heart,
All: and we are happy to confine love to our hearts, though we reserve the right to define “all,” loving only when we “feel” it.

One: You call us to love You with all our soul,
All: and that sounds easier, because souls we only have to deal with at church.

**Please stand if able*

One: You call us to love you with all our mind,
All: and we definitely know how to think about love!
 One: You call us to love you with all our strength,
All: and we have used these words to justify using our strength against others in Your name.
 One: You call us to love our neighbor, and our enemy, as we love ourselves,
All: and we confess that now You are getting too personal. How can we love those to whom we do not speak? How can we love those with whom we disagree? How can we love...how can You love...those people?
 One: Forgive us, Lord, for drawing the circle too tightly, for presuming to know Your mind, for being quick to judge and quick to anger.
All: Open our hearts, our souls, our minds, our strength to love You, and our neighbor, with our whole being. We pray in the name of the One who loved us first. Amen.

Silent Confession

*Prayer of Dedication Generous God, as we bring You our offerings this morning, teach us to live so that there may be enough for all. Extend us beyond our narrow concepts that we may be startled by our capacity to give. Keep us dedicated to our discipline of love that we may know the joy of sharing our riches. Accept our gifts that they may be used to glorify You. Amen.

When bulletins are waved during worship at NYAPC, it is a sign of appreciation for the music or other contribution to the service. It is an action which we learned from our partner church, the First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana, as an alternative to clapping. For the wavers, it is an expression of joy in the moment and our connections with sisters and brothers in faith.
