“A Chat with Matt: Studying St. Matthew's Gospel” Have you ever wondered what mysteries lay within the Sermon on the Mount? What does it mean to live a successful and meaningful life in today's time? Was Jesus speaking to us concerning our actions or character because He wanted us to change? Or was Jesus in a sarcastic way revealing to us the way the law shaped and structured our lives in the hopes that we would realize that, in the end, our way of living according to the law in many ways constricts and hinders us from being free and walking in our destiny? Led by Samario Anthony of Howard University's Divinity School.
Adult Sunday School	Sunday, March 10 10 a.m., Room 511
“The Universe Is Made of Stories, Not Atoms: Short Stories in the World of Faith” This class will consider short stories that touch in one way or other on the world of faith, stories of doubt, faith, forgiveness, grace, blessing, sign and symbol. Participants will read this week's stories and be prepared to discuss them and compare them. Copies of the stories for March 10 will be available today. Led by Paul Dornan.
Adult Sunday School	Sundays, March 17 and 24 April 7 and 14 10 a.m., Room 511
Desperate Housewives? The Bible is full of embarrassing, offensive, problematic texts that present serious interpretive challenges for contemporary Christian faith and practice. Should they be repudiated? Discarded? Silenced? Or are there perhaps more effective and faithful ways of handling them? These class sessions will consider the importance of engaging them directly and publicly, with the expectation that we may encounter the living God in our conversation with them. Texts in the Pauline corpus that have proved oppressive in the lives of many Christian women will serve as test cases, providing glimpses of struggles in which foremothers in the faith were engaged in early Pauline churches. Led by Frances Taylor Gench.

Gracious God, we confess that too often we have complained instead of giving thanks. We have wandered from Your ways, wasted Your gifts, and turned from Your love. Have mercy on us, O Lord, and forgive our sin. Open our eyes to see the needs of others, and lead us into acts of kindness and service. Fill us with Your Spirit that we may honor You in all we do.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Response

#267 (verse 4), “All Things Bright and Beautiful”

All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful:
The Lord God made them all.

And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

Garage Parking: Free self-parking is available on Sundays in the garage next to the church at 1399 New York Avenue until 1 p.m. Please park in any non-reserved space.

Radcliffe Room Ministry: Everyone is invited and encouraged to come to the Radcliffe Room on Sunday mornings at 8:30 a.m.. This is a vibrant NYAPC ministry and we would love to have you join us: meet our friends for coffee, conversation, bagels and hymn singing.

Restrooms: The Deacons remind members and friends that the restrooms on the fifth floor are available on Sundays mornings.

Infants and children: Babies and toddlers under 4 are welcome in the Park Level nursery. Care is provided by licensed, paid professionals. During the services, children’s worship aids are available in the rear of the Sanctuary.

Building Tours: To take a tour of our building and learn about this congregation’s heritage and current ministry and outreach, meet the tour guide at the front of the Sanctuary immediately following the service.

When bulletins are waved during worship at NYAPC, it is a sign of appreciation for the music or other contribution to the service. It is an action which we learned from our partner church, the First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana, as an alternative to clapping. For the wavers, it is an expression of joy in the moment and our connections with sisters and brothers in faith.

Non-perishable food donations are being requested to share with the Capital Area Food Bank, the large nonprofit hunger and nutrition education resource in the Washington metropolitan area. Your donations are welcome in the baskets located at the rear of the Sanctuary.
