“If they were silent, the very stones would cry out.” ~Luke 19:40 Revelation, the Sublime, and Abstract Art : This four-week series explores how God communicates his eternal covenant, steadfast love, peace, mystery and limitlessness through the visual arts. We will start by looking closely at revelation and the ways the Holy Spirit works and speaks in the world, approaching the question through Scripture and writings by early church fathers and various theologians. We will then delve into the concept of the Sublime as it has developed over time in philosophy, theology, literature and the visual arts. Finally we will discuss God’s presence in and communication through abstract painting and sculpture, looking at particularly resonant artists and artworks and inviting participants to share their own instances. Led by Kim Johnson.
Adult Sunday School	Today 10 a.m., Room 520
“What’s New in Njoro?” Beth and Bob Braxton recently returned from the International Mission Conference in Nakuru, Kenya where the Presbyterian Church of East Africa and their sister partner churches in PC(USA), Scotland, Ireland and Canada discussed issues of international partnership and mission. Nakuru is about 20 miles from Njoro, so Beth and Bob were able to spend four days with our partners in the PCEA Njoro Parish. They stayed with the Rev. George Kariuki and his family. They attended the Saturday program where the orphans and vulnerable children we support have their activities. Beth preached at the Sunday services (one in English and one in Swahili). They also had the opportunity to visit the homes of four new orphans. Come hear their reflections on this important NYAPC mission.

- *Call to Worship Psalm 95:1-8
Leader: O come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
All: Let us come into God's presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to God with songs of praise!
Leader: For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
All: In God's hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains belong to God also. The sea and the dry land—all belong to the Lord.
Leader: O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!
All: Yes, the Lord is our God, and we are the people of God's pasture, the sheep of God's hand. Today we will not harden our hearts. We will listen to the voice of the Lord!

Prayer of Confession John 4:5-24
Lord, You know who we are. You know everything we have done. We thirst for things that will never satisfy us. We commit ourselves to things that will never last. We worship things that will never bring salvation. Still, You offer us the gift of living water. Still, You offer us the gift of eternal life. Forgive us, O Lord, and give us this living water, so that we may never thirst again.

never fails from age to age.

When bulletins are waved during worship at NYAPC, it is a sign of appreciation for the music or other contribution to the service. It is an action which we learned from our partner church, the First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana, as an alternative to clapping. For the wavers, it is an expression of joy in the moment and our connections with sisters and brothers in faith.
