"A Chat with Matt: Studying St. Matthew's Gospel" Have you ever wondered what mysteries lay within the Sermon on the Mount? What does it mean to live a successful and meaningful life in today's time? Was Jesus speaking to us concerning our actions or character because He wanted us to change? Or was Jesus in a sarcastic way revealing to us the way the law shaped and structured our lives in the hopes that we would realize that, in the end, our way of living according to the law in many ways constricts and hinders us from being free and walking in our destiny? Led by Samario Anthony of Howard University's Divinity School.
Adult Sunday School	TODAY 10 a.m., Room 511
"Fear and Trembling" Soren Kierkegaard, an eccentric Danish Lutheran, was one of the most creative and brilliant thinkers of the 19th century and an important influence on 20 th Century theologians, including Karl Barth. This class will read and discuss "Fear and Trembling." The book is available in the Church Office (M-F, 9-5) or reserve a book by email to judith.mcgovern@nyapc.org . Led by Dewey Wallace.
Adult Sunday School	Sunday, March 10 10 a.m., Room 511
"The Universe Is Made of Stories, Not Atoms: Short Stories in the World of Faith" This class will consider short stories that touch in one way or other on the world of faith, stories of doubt, faith, forgiveness, grace, blessing, sign and symbol. Participants will read this week's stories and be prepared to discuss them and compare them. Copies of the stories for March 10 will be available today. Led by Paul Dornan.
Adult Sunday School	Sundays, March 17 and 24 April 7 and 14 10 a.m., Room 511
Desperate Housewives? The Bible is full of embarrassing, offensive, problematic texts that present serious interpretive challenges for contemporary Christian faith and practice. Should they be repudiated? Discarded? Silenced? Or are there perhaps more effective and faithful ways of handling them? These class sessions will consider the importance of engaging them directly and publicly, with the expectation that we may encounter the living God in our conversation with them. Texts in the Pauline corpus that have proved oppressive in the lives of many Christian women will serve as test cases, providing glimpses of struggles in which foremothers in the faith were engaged in early Pauline churches. Led by Frances Taylor Gench.

All:	O God, You are my God. My soul thirsts for You, as in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.
Leader:	Let us bless the Lord as long as we live and call upon God's mighty name.
All:	My soul clings to You, O God. Your right hand upholds me. Your steadfast love is better than life.
Leader:	My soul is satisfied as with a rich feast, and my mouth praises the Lord with joyful lips.
