"If they were silent, the very stones would cry out." ~Luke 19:40
Revelation, the Sublime, and Abstract Art: This four-week series explores how God communicates his eternal covenant, steadfast love, peace, mystery and limitlessness through the visual arts. We will start by looking closely at revelation and the ways the Holy Spirit works and speaks in the world, approaching the question through scripture and writings by early church fathers and various theologians. We will then delve into the concept of the Sublime as it has developed over time in philosophy, theology, literature and the visual arts. Finally we will discuss God's presence in and communication through abstract painting and sculpture, looking at particularly resonant artists and artworks and inviting participants to share their own instances. Led by Kim Johnson.

Adult Sunday School Today
10 a.m., Room 520

"Traveling through Ephesians" Despite being imprisoned in Rome, Paul remained encouraged. He wrote to his believers, encouraging them to grow and mature in their faith, to be unified, to use their God-given gifts and ministries for the church, to conduct their relationships according to God's divine order, and to live an empowered Christian life. Join us for a nine-week study, as we explore themes in the prison epistle, Ephesians, and discover, or re-discover, ways to apply Paul's themes to our lives and our walk with Christ today. Tarra Taylor of Howard Divinity School will lead.

Adult Sunday School Sunday, March 16
10 a.m., Peter Marshall Hall

Singing "Glory to God". We've now had our new hymnal in the pews for several months. Stan Engbretson and choir members will share their impressions and lessons from early experience with the hymnal. Attendees will be asked to share their impressions as well. New and recovered treasures will be explored! Led by Stan Engbretson, Martha Davis and Jim Turner.

O who am I that for my sake my Lord should take Frail flesh, and die?

But O my Friend, My Friend indeed, Who at my need

When bulletins are waved during worship at NYAPC, it is a sign of appreciation for the music or other contribution to the service. It is an action which we learned from our partner church, the First Presbyterian-Reformed Church of Havana, as an alternative to clapping. For the wavers, it is an expression of joy in the moment and our connections with sisters and brothers in faith.
