Adult Sunday School

Adventures in Prayer	Today, 9:20 a.m., Lincoln Parlor
Maybe you are new to prayer. Maybe prayer is as natural to you as breathing. This class, which will meet in the Lincoln Chapel at 9 a.m., is for everyone and anyone who takes prayer seriously. We will learn together and we will pray together. All questions, joys, and concerns are welcome. Come when you can. The adventure awaits. Led by Miriam Dewhurst.
"Children in Second Kings: Prophetic, Blessed, Collateral"	June 7, 14, 21, and 28, 9 a.m., Room 511
This four-week series led by Reverend Paula Hall of Howard Divinity School will examine the role of children in the Book of Second Kings wherein young ones assume a variety of roles. Our study will focus on three children's roles in this text. In the first, children are used as collateral for debt. In the second, children are seen to be a blessing/miracle from God. Finally, the child assumes a role in the office of the prophet. This new way to understand youthful and child characters within the Hebrew Bible raises a modern question: Do we in the church see children similarly or have we de-valued our children to the status of non-contributors in our spiritual lives?

The flowers in the chancel today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of George L. Herndon by his wife, Betty Herndon and their family.

The Peace Candle on the chancel reminds us to pray for the cities experiencing conflict and tension between police and local communities.

Call to Confession

Lauren Gillies
*The Confession prayers were written by Lauren Gillies,

Lauren: God gave us water to help us survive, to create new life, and to cleanse us from our sins. Let us now before God confess our sins together.

* Please stand, if able

Prayer of Confession Jack Anderson

Jack: Let us confess our sins together.
All: God of mercy and patience, we are drowning in all of our sins, barely keeping our heads above water. We are constantly placing our will before Yours. We have failed You by wasting Your life-giving water. We have used Your water to destroy life. We desperately need Your help to change us so that we may be made clean. Help us, God, be more like Your water so that we may help create and sustain new possibilities in life. God of the waters, take away our doubt, and please forgive us and change our minds so that they may be made pure again. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon Alex Moore

Alex: Having confessed our sins, God WILL redeem us and forgive our sins with God's power. Please stand if you are able, and be restored to right-standing in the eyes of God as we join together in our response to our assurance of pardon.

#488, (verses 1-4) "I Was There to Hear Your Borne Cry"
Waterlife

1 I was there to hear your borne cry; I'll be there when you are old. I rejoiced the day you were baptized to see your life unfold. I was there when you were but a child with a faith to suit you well; in a blaze of light you wondered off to find where demons dwell.

2 When you heard the wonder of the Word, I was there to cheer you on. You were raised to praise the living Lord to whom you now belong. If you find someone to share time and you join your hearts as one, I'll be there to make your verses rhyme from dusk till rising sun.

3 In the middle ages of your life, not too old, no longer young, I'll be there to guide you through the night, complete what I've begun. When the evening gently closes in and you shut your weary eyes, I'll be there as I have always been with just one more surprise.

4 I was there to hear your borne cry; I'll be there when you are old. I rejoiced the day you were baptized to see your life unfold.
