

Adult Sunday School
“So Sarah Laughed: Laughter in the Bible”	Today and November 8, 15, 22, 10:00 a.m., Room 511
Rev. Paula Hall of Howard Divinity School will lead a Bible study of the role of laughter, a very human response to the vagaries of life, in the Biblical narratives. Rev. Hall has been a regular participant in the church’s adult program for the last two years, and we welcome her presence among us.
Adventures in Prayer	November 8, 10:20 a.m., Lincoln Parlor
Maybe you are new to prayer. Maybe prayer is as natural to you as breathing. This class, meeting in the Lincoln Chapel at 10:20 a.m., is for everyone and anyone who takes prayer seriously. We learn together and pray together and currently are using Marjorie Thompson’s Soul Feast as a guide. All questions, joys and concerns are welcome. Come when you can.
“Introducing Islam”	November 8, 15, 22, 10:00 a.m., Room 520
Islam is one of the world’s great faiths and now enters the consciousness of Americans daily, yet we know so little about it. We have invited three gracious and knowledgeable Muslims to introduce their faith to us. Sayyidd Syeed, National Director of the Office for Interfaith and Community Alliances of the Islamic Society of North America [November 8], Mehmet Ayaz of the Institute of Islamic and Turkish Studies [November 15] and Mohamed Elsanousi, Director of the Secretariat of the Washington Office of the Network for Religious and Traditional Peacemakers [November 22] will each address the following questions: (1) What would you say are the core tenets of Islam and how do they manifest themselves in the lives of individual Moslems? (2) Tell us a little about yourself and what your faith means to you. (3) What are three or four myths that you believe non-Moslems hold about Islam and how would you go about dispelling them? and (4) And, if we want to know more, what do you suggest that we do?

Postlude

“Toccata,” from Suite Gothique
Leon Boëllmann

We wish to thank Samantha Scheff for her participation in worship this morning as organist and pianist.

The flowers in the chancel today are given to the glory of God and in honor of all living veterans, and to let them know that we deeply appreciate the sacrifices they have made in their lives to keep our country free.

The Peace Candle on the chancel reminds us to pray for victims of the earthquake in Pakistan and Afghanistan, and for the people in Indonesia, the Philippines, Singapore, and Thailand affected by the smoke of peatlands fires in Indonesia, termed an environmental disaster.

Information for Sunday Visitors
