

Adult Sunday School

Adventures in Prayer Today, 10:20 a.m., Lincoln Parlor

Maybe you are new to prayer. Maybe prayer is as natural to you as breathing. This class, meeting in the Lincoln Chapel at 10:20 a.m., is for everyone and anyone who takes prayer seriously. We learn together and pray together and currently are using Marjorie Thompson's Soul Feast as a guide. All questions, joys and concerns are welcome. Come when you can.

"So Sarah Laughed: Laughter in the Bible" Today and November 15, 22, 10:00 a.m., Room 511

Rev. Paula Hall of Howard Divinity School will lead a Bible study of the role of laughter, a very human response to the vagaries of life, in the Biblical narratives. Rev. Hall has been a regular participant in the church's adult program for the last two years, and we welcome her presence among us.

"Introducing Islam" Today and November 15, 22, 10:00 a.m., Room 520

Islam is one of the world's great faiths and now enters the consciousness of Americans daily, yet we know so little about it. We have invited three gracious and knowledgeable Muslims to introduce their faith to us. Sayyidd Syeed, National Director of the Office for Interfaith and Community Alliances of the Islamic Society of North America [November 8], Mehmet Ayaz of the Institute of Islamic and Turkish Studies [November 15] and Mohamed Elsanousi, Director of the Secretariat of the Washington Office of the Network for Religious and Traditional Peacemakers [November 22] will each address the following questions: (1) What would you say are the core tenets of Islam and how do they manifest themselves in the lives of individual Muslims? (2) Tell us a little about yourself and what your faith means to you. (3) What are three or four myths that you believe non-Muslims hold about Islam and how would you go about dispelling them? and (4) And, if we want to know more, what do you suggest that we do?

Members, affiliates, and friends are all invited to participate in Annual Stewardship. Please contact Jan Maheras, the church accountant, Laura Asiala, the chair of the Annual Stewardship Committee, or Rev. Land of Rest

Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, in every age You have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to Your will. You call us to proclaim Your name, but we are silent. You call us to do what is just, but we remain idle. You call us to live faithfully, but we are afraid. In Your mercy, forgive us. Give us courage to follow in Your way, that joined with those from ages past, who have served You with faith, hope, and love, we may inherit the kingdom You promised in Jesus Christ. Amen.

“Trumpet Tune in D Major”

*The liturgy for today’s service comes from a “Service for those in the Criminal Justice System,” and resources for “All Saints Sunday” both created by the PCUSA.

The flowers in the chancel today are given to the glory of God and in memory of Leonora Marquis, longtime member and former Christian Educator at NYAPC, by members and friends of the congregation through their contributions to the Flower Fund.

The Peace Candle on the chancel reminds us to pray for victims of the earthquake in Pakistan and Afghanistan, and for the people in Indonesia, the Philippines, Singapore, and Thailand affected by the smoke of peatlands fires in Indonesia, termed an environmental disaster.
