Greetings Friends! Will You Join Us?

The New York Avenue Presbyterian Church is hosting the #MLK50Awake event on April 4, 2017, which commemorates Martin Luther King's April 4, 1967 speech, "Beyond Vietnam: A Time to Break Silence."

The event will host discussion panels and workshops from 12:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. At the conclusion of the send off event, there will be a march to the white house and vigil in Lafayette Square Park.

Please join clergy and laity and all who see themselves as religious, spiritual, or ethical seekers who are concerned about America in this present crisis, for a day of reflection on Dr. King's message.

We hope that you will share this event invitation and flyer within your networks, as we expect many people would be interested in participating in such an event that will examine where we currently are in terms of actualizing the actions that Dr. King challenged us to initiate during the last year of his life.

"I am convinced that if we are to get on the right side of the world revolution, we as a nation must undergo a radical revolution of values. . . . When machines and computers, profit motives and property rights are considered more important than people, the giant triplets of racism, materialism, and militarism are incapable of being conquered. ... We are confronted by the fierce urgency of Now." -Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Later that evening, there will be a second event Commemorating MLK's Life and Legacy.

Join us at 7:00 p.m. after the vigil, back at The New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, for the event Commemorating the 49th Observance of the Assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The event is free to the public. Sam Ford is the MC for the evening of speeches, songs, and remembrances.

Presented by: DC Black History Celebration Committee, DC Host Committee and the Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday Commission.
