

The New York Avenue Presbyterian Church invites you to the Spring 2017 McClendon Scholar in Residence Programs on:

Spirit and Action: Learning from Howard Thurman

Four DC area clergy, all leaders in the fight for social justice, will share insights from Thurman's famous book, Jesus and the Disinherited, which can help us in our work today.

The third presentation in this series:

Rev. William H. Lamar IV, Pastor
Metropolitan AME Church

will speak on the topic of
“The Spiritual Work of Prophetic People”

Saturday, May 6, 2017 10 a.m. to Noon
New York Avenue Presbyterian Church
1313 New York Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20005

This and other programs in the series will include refreshments, music, group discussion and information about ways to get involved in working for justice.

Copies of Jesus and the Disinherited will be available for $5 at each presentation as well as from participating churches. However, reading the book is not required to understand or benefit from these programs

For more information call Theo Brown at 240-393-7246